PRESIDENT'S NOTES

Well you guys, we did it! We performed one of the most stressful plays in Theatre33's history. Even though some tears were shed, I think that all the funny times we had will shine through when we remember this play. Now it's time for memories with Abby. Remember when . . .

“Why you dance? You stop well.”-Aaron Eberly

Norma's sarong falling off

Amanda showing off her behind

The hoop skirt underwear incident

“RRRRRRRRUUUUUUUUUNNNNNNNN”-Dreibelbis

“I see bloomers!”-pit crew

Mrs. Wilkinson's giggle

“If I do this play good, I get a new Barbie.”-Anna & Sarah Buttgen

And the ever popular “Are we done yet?”-every kid

DJ and Steve playing telephone with the drainage tile before it was cut.

The work session when Joel filled the entire cafeteria with fog

“I feel funny. Maybe I should stop spray painting.”

I'm sure there were several more funny moments, but I only have a little space in which to write, so sorry if I missed yours. I'm proud of everyone for doing such a good job on this play. Thanks a bunch!

- Abby Harris*

DIRECTORS' NOTES

Wow. . . what a musical! Never in a million years did I think that I would be playing piano in a pit orchestra! Only by the grace of God was I able to play this piano part. (Thanks mom and dad for making me practice my piano when I was little.) We also have added some more instruments. Thanks to the help from fellow music teachers, Jill Hess and Bryan Shidler, we were able to start a new era of music. This was a huge undertaking and I am happy to say that it has gone quite well. I really appreciate those students who chose to commit so much time and energy to practice this very challenging music. I hope you enjoy the show.

Karen Wilkinson, Music Director

At least three times a day, someone has called me crazy for doing such a difficult and large show. When we first realized we had nearly 70 children, I thought it might be true. I don't think it is crazy to challenge our actors, musicians, technicians, or myself. You never know what you are capable of unless you push yourself. I am very proud of all the students involved in this show for pushing themselves, for pushing me, and for continuously pushing the standards of Theatre33.

A word of thanks and praise to all of the princesses and princes: You all were wonderful to work with and I cannot wait until you all are in high school, so you can be in Theatre33. You should be very proud of yourselves for listening well, working hard, and for doing your best!

A huge “I owe you one” for all of the Theatre33 members who stepped up as leaders and helpers and kid watchers and errand runners and mosaic painters, etc., etc., etc. This show would not have been possible without you all. I am truly grateful and I love you all. Thank you!

Amy B. Dreibelbis, Director
